SIERRA MADRE, CALIFORNIA—JULY 14, 1955

12 PAGES—VOL. 49—NO. 36

IT WOULD BE EASIER to count the "Unlucky Seven" who weren't there than to estimate the number of people who jammed the Sierra Madre Hardware store Friday night when free merchandise was given to 32 people who were among the 1400 families to register during the store's three-day "Open House" a week earlier. Mrs. Wilbur S. Hull, wife of the store's former owner, was the gracious lady who drew the cards from a laundry dryer and Tom Schwartz, on the platform (right), called the names of the winners assisted by his fellow corporation members, Emile Smith and Syd Westfall. For the big prize, a $190 refrigerator, Schwartz called seven names before the eighth belonged to a man who was present, John Kruttsch.

HE COULDN'T CARRY IT home, but that didn't bother John Kruttsch when he was presented with a new "icebox" all for free simply because he was in the crowd at the Sierra Madre Hardware store Friday evening when a drawing, begun at 8 o'clock, delivered a variety of valuable prizes to 31 others in attendance. The seven names called before his were Walter H. Anderson, Arthur B. Colnon, William R. Lees, Mrs. Sterling Ripple, Mrs. Louise Weaver, Mrs. Ted Spence, and Freda L. Holmes. Just exactly what were their individual reactions to "missing the box" might, or might not, be printable.

Business Promotion Draws Crowds

The Sierra Madre Hardware Company, Inc., was so crowded Friday evening that those promoting its three-day "Open House" celebration a week earlier as a matter of good business were unable to do business.

None of its 14 employees—including its three corporation members, Tom Schwartz, Emile Smith, and Syd Westfall—objected, however. The reason for the occasion was the awarding of prizes to people picked in a drawing of registration cards signed by members of more than 1400 families during the previous "Open House" days—June 30, July 1, and July 2.

The registration ducats, mixed and stirred in a laundry dryer and selected by Mrs. Wilbur Hull, were drawn seven times before the winner for the $189.95-plus-tax refrigerator, who had to be present for the big prize, was found. His name turned out to be John Kruttsch, 435 Canon Drive.

The other names called by Tom Schwartz, president of the corporation, before Kruttsch was given the handsome new "icebox" were in the following order: Walter H. Anderson, Arthur B. Colnon, William R. Lees (Sierra Madre's building inspector), Mrs. Sterling Ripple (wife of the director of Ripple Mortuary), Mrs. Louise Weaver, Mrs. Ted Spence, and Freda L. Holmes.

Each one of the seven "among the missing" have individual

C. of C. Plans Membership Party July 21

The membership luncheon for the Sierra Madre Chapter of Commerce will be held next Thursday, July 21, at the Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Bob Shillito, general manager of the Los Angeles Downtown Businessmen's Association, will tell about future business conditions and James Wolfe, local merchants chairman, will tell about promotional activities planned here. Peggy Lusman, chairman of the C. of C. entertainment committee, will arrange the luncheon in cooperation with the women of the clubhouse.

The Chamber of Commerce also has announced that its new brochures are ready for distribution. Thousands of them will be sent throughout California and other areas of the United States.

The brochure was made possible through the cooperation of John C. Loomis, regitor, the Bank of Sierra Madre, John H. Curtis, real estate broker, Gale Hersey, builder, Harry A. Lange, realtor, Manuel de la Torre, builder, the Pangborn Realty Co., the Lions Club, Kiwanis, and the Exchange Club.

Anyone wishing to mail the brochure to friends and acquaintances out of town may do so by contacting the Chamber of Commerce at 94 N. Baldwin Ave., telephone Custer 5-6226.

Administrator Defines 'City Government'

Lawrence Bevington, Sierra Madre's city administrator, was the principal speaker at the Tuesday luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club at the Woman's Clubhouse. His topic, "City Government," dealt with laws, people, and problems on the local level.

Taking the word "govern," he used each letter to begin a word or phrase defining his conception of the proper principles of good government. He also related some of the experiences and situations encountered in the daily functioning of his position.

Guests included Dr. Carl L. Vollmer and Tom Suttner of Arcadia Kiwanis, Dr. C. L. Haines of the Altadena club, and P. J. Martin.

Audio-Visual Setup Planned At Library's Community Room

Seeing unlimited program possibilities for the Sierra Madre Public Library's Community room with the addition of audio-visual equipment to the room's facilities, the Friends of the Library have made that project an immediate objective.

At a recent Friends of the Library board meeting in Miss Martha C. Pritchard's 121 E. Alegria home, the president, Mrs. Stanley Fish, appointed Charles Frederick Morse and Dr. Nathan Jacobs to assist Raymond D. Andrews, audio-visual chairman, in investigating the purchase of such equipment.

Now starting its third year as an auxiliary to the library, the Friends of the Library also are stressing the importance of membership renewals and are inviting new memberships, urging former and prospective members to send their dues to the treasurer, George L. Russell, 514 Santa Anita Court. Memberships range from $1 for individual annual fees to $100 for lifetime members.

Lee Shippey, program chairman, reported tentative plans for beginning a monthly series of "no admission" cultural programs to begin in August. Mrs. David Wood, children's chairman, also is planning some Saturday afternoon programs of special interest to youngsters, the dates to be announced later. The latter project is aimed at stimulating children's interest in use of the library.

The board of directors of the Friends of the Library meets the first Thursday of every month and all meetings are open to the general membership, Mrs. Fish points out.

Membership application blanks are available at the library.

LIONS HOST TO RABBI EINHORN

Rabbi Ephraim Einhorn, of the Temple Beth David of the San Gabriel Valley, will address the Lions Club tonight at its regular dinner meeting at the Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., beginning at 7:15 o'clock.

Rabbi Einhorn, who was the keynote speaker at the last World's Jewish Congress, was once associated with the British Foreign Office as an Intelligence director.

At the meeting tonight will be members of the newly formed Lions Club of South Arcadia. Among the invited guests is Rabbi Charles W. Steckel of the Foothill Jewish Community Center, 212 N. Lima St.

Wives of the members also have been invited to attend.

Recreations At Park Draw Youngsters

Activities at City Park have increased since June 27 at which time the Recreation Commission began its sponsorship of a crafts and recreations program for children from seven to 12 years of age.

The morning hours are from 10 to 12 o'clock and the afternoon hours are from 1 to 3 o'clock. Besides the crafts, taught in the mornings, team sports, story telling, singing, and contests are conducted in the afternoons.

Five and 10 cents per craft is charged to help defray the cost

Sierra Madre 'Settlers' Not So Settled

By Martha Coutant.

"Settling down" in a community signifies to most people the acceptance of a daily routine varied occasionally by a brief excursion out of town, but there is always the exception to the rule and in this case it is the Rosenes.

With memories of a five-year honeymoon to far parts of the world, as told by Russell Rosene in the July issue of the American Magazine, the author and his wife, Nita, moved to 720 Skyland Drive "to settle down and raise a family like the rest of the folks in Sierra Madre."

It seems evident, however, that to the Rosenes "settling down" means being limited to anything from 5,000 to 10,000-mile jaunts whenever circumstances permit—and both of them the courage to see to it that circumstances do permit it, quite often.

In the magazine article, which is an account of the uninhibited wandering that shocked and worried their friends, Russell Rosene tells of how they spent a rugged winter on a tiny Wisconsin island and later made a 2000-mile camping trip through Alaska. This, however, was just a starter. Later they traveled much of Europe, northern Africa, and South America.

All of it was preceded by what "Russ" calls a little experiment—such as hitch-hiking 11,000 miles through 21 states and parts of Canada. With lit-

Watch Winner To Be Named At Concert

Elaine Parks, Sierra Madre's 1955 Wistaria Queen, will draw the ticket for the lucky winner of the Elgin watch to be given away during the Sierra Madre Community Band Concert tomorrow evening at City Park. The program begins at 8 o'clock, and the drawing will be held shortly after 9.

Tickets may be deposited up to the time of drawing, and are available from band members and local businessmen. The Sierra Madre Bank is accepting ticket stubs. All proceeds will be used for band purposes.

Another "lead the band" contest will be held, according to Roger Gray, director. Three members of the audience are chosen to compete for prizes donated by local merchants, according to Paul Landwehr, band committee chairman. Kenneth (Joe) Bush again will be master of ceremonies, a post ably handled by Herbert Hardin at the last concert.

Included on the program will be "Guadalcanal March," the sensational background music from the "Victory at Sea" picture. Other numbers are "Dance of the Apprentices" from Die Meistersinger, selections from the "Red Mill," and Grofé's "On the Trail," as well as several popular marches and "Tea For Two."

The band is sponsored by the Sierra Madre Recreation Commission, and is open to anyone with at least two years' group experience. Rehearsals are held Wednesday evenings at the Sierra Madre City School, 141 W. Highland Ave.

Pool Cost Reduced

Family tickets now are available at the Canyon swimming pool. City Council last Tuesday voted to grant both parents, and a family up to three children, admission to the pool for a $1 ticket. This ticket is valid for admission to either the afternoon or evening sessions, and reduces the cost for a family of five from $1.60 to $1.

City Council Hears Zoning Protests at Quiet Meeting

Library Board Names Those in New Terms

Officers of the Sierra Madre Library Board, elected last week during a meeting at the home of Miss Martha Caroline Pritchard, 121 E. Alegria Ave., are: W. Webster Vannier, president; Robert D. Dodge, vice president; and Miss Pritchard, secretary-treasurer. Other members of the board are Frederick Springate and Hugh Colvin.

Miss Pritchard, who has served as secretary-treasurer to the board for many years, announced that Vannier and Dodge recently were appointed by City Council to serve three terms as board members. Each term served by a member is for three years.

Mother and 3 Children Flee Boys' Gunfire

A mother and three small children were narrowly missed by four bullets fired into their back yard Thursday afternoon in a canyon section at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kassler, III, 775 Skyland Dr. Whether the dangerous aiming of the bullets was deliberate or accidental has not been determined.

Mrs. Kassler was in the rear patio of her home with her daughters—Christine, 4; Diane, 2; and Nina, 9 months—when the first bullet pierced a small hothouse about 20 feet from the group. The second dug into the ground three feet away, and the third hit a tree 15 feet from the baby's play pen.

She was in the process of hurrying her children into the house when the fourth bullet struck the roof one foot above her head.

She saw two boys about 50 yards away at whom she shouted. The boys ran and were out of sight in the thick brush when police arrived in response to her telephone call.

Police, who are investigating the case, say that heavy penalties can be imposed upon anyone who is caught illegally firing a gun within the city limits, which extend far beyond the residential sections.

'Disneyland' To Be Theme At Concerts

In tribute to Walt Disney and his "Disneyland" opening in Anaheim Sunday, two of the most spectacular concert events in the history of the Hollywood Bowl will be presented tonight and tomorrow night. Both programs will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Part of the program will be a "magical parade" of beloved music and characters from the colorful Disney world of fantasy.

The program tonight is "Family Night," and thousands of families and groups are expected to come early, bringing their box lunches or picnics to eat in the picnic grounds or seating areas.

Tomorrow will be "Scout Night," with Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Brownies, Cubs, and Campfire groups swarming in to the Bowl, along with regular concert-goers, to see their Disney heroes and favorites.

Falls 20 Feet, Injuries Minor

James McCarron, masonry contractor, escaped serious injury when he fell 20 feet last Tuesday afternoon from a scaffold at Perlof's new drug store, under construction at 84 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

He was attempting to prevent a plank from falling to the sidewalk, and lost his balance, landing on his head among rocks and gravel. Unconscious, he was taken to Dr. Jacobs' office next door, where it is reported he sustained no broken bones and now is recovering satisfactorily.

Professional Zone Opposed; Most Home Jobs Legalized

Public opposition to the proposed new zoning ordinance simmered down at last Tuesday night's hearing at the City Hall to comparatively calm protests, and only one question regarding home occupations. Three previous hearings before the Planning Commission had developed much hostility to any rezoning of City property, and particularly to any limitations in present uses of homes and garages for small machine shops or similar occupations. Last Tuesday the Planning Commission presented the ordinance to the City Council, recommending its adoption.

Mayor James voiced public attitude succinctly when he said, "Citizens agree that we need an ordinance, but at that point the agreement ceases. Each person has his own opinion of the improvements and changes the ordinance should effect."

William N. Thorpe, formerly master planning consultant for

ADVISORY GROUP TO SERVE LOCAL YOUTH

Frazer Dougherty, president of the Sierra Madre Youth Activities Association, has announced the formation of a seven-member advisory committee to the association.

The representative group includes the following: Thomas R. Suttner, attorney; A. E. Morgan, vice president of the Bank of Sierra Madre; Milton L. Goldberg, professional youth consultant; the Rev. George Lindsay, minister, First Congregational Church; Chief of Police Gordon G. McMillan; Philip T. Mitchell, City Recreation director, and Mrs. Edith T. Dane, liaison with the Sierra Madre Community Coordinating Council.

The Youth Activities Association with which the above group will work, sponsors the Semanons, local teen-agers' club.

UCLA Summer Class Visits Local School

The Sierra Madre Community Nursery School, 701 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., was honored Friday by a visit from a UCLA Summer School class.

Dr. Helen Christianson, Supervisor of Early Childhood Education at UCLA, brought a class of teachers for a morning at the nursery school. They were interested and favorably impressed by the mothers' participation in the school and the extensive equipment made by the fathers.

An exchange visit was planned so that Tuesday a group of teachers and mothers visited the Demonstration Nursery School and Kindergarten at UCLA. Accompanying Mrs. Marjorie Green, local nursery school director, on the visit were Mesdames Elinor Jacobs, Edith Dane, Emily Tempes, V. C. Divine, C. M. Shafer, A. H. Bussey, E. Alonso, R. J. Forbes, D. N. McAdam and J. R. Parker.

After visiting the Demonstration School, Mrs. Green met with Dr. Christianson's class in Early Childhood Education to discuss further the value of parent participation.

Dr. Christianson has been a member of the Advisory Council of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School since its beginning.

Postmaster Charles E. Louk Appointed 'Chest' Director

Charles E. Louk, postmaster and former mayor, was appointed to the Sierra Madre Community Chest board of directors for a three-year term at a meeting of the Chest last week in the City Parkhouse.

At the same meeting the letter of resignation by Dr. Raynor Smith as president was read and accepted with regret. Donald D. Mon, vice president, told the board he would be unable to move to the presidency this year and appointed a committee to recommend a successor to Dr. Smith. The committee includes, in addition to Mon, Mrs. Harold Pangborn, Mrs. Herman Ohs, L. T. McGinnis and Mrs. S. C. Lumbard.

Albert J. Paus, chairman of the Budget and Admissions committee, told directors that his group is prepared to begin budget hearings just as soon as all applications for membership and budget statements have been received by him. All institutional members have been asked to deliver this ma-

Unless another hearing is demanded by the public, last Tuesday's meeting is the last of the series. City Council and the Planning Commission will schedule study sessions on the ordinance, and if all its provisions are approved by the Council the ordinance will be passed. Mimeographed copies, subject to some revisions, may be obtained at the City Hall.

Los Angeles County, and a noted authority on planning for 35 years, who gave his address as "Michillinda near Fairview for part of the time," congratulated the Council on its selection of Gordon Whitnall and Associates as zoning consultants. Thorpe said that the Whitnall firm has an outstanding reputation throughout the United States. Though he rec-

A ROSE BY ANY OTHER NAME . . .

There's a quiet little street in the northeast corner of Sierra Madre that wants to change its name. It is called Vista Ave. and it runs from East Grandview to Elkins Ave., and is dotted with 18 homes whose mail boxes are marked with Vista Circle Drive and Vista Del Valle Drive in Sierra Madre, and a score of other Vistas elsewhere.

Fifteen families out of its total of 18 petitioned the City Council last Tuesday to change the "Vista," but they made the job difficult by offering no substitute name.

Now is the time for all good citizens to come to the aid of their city street. In other words, if residents don't want Vista, what will they have? Perhaps the Planning Commission will accept their suggestions.

The three families who objected said it would be too much trouble to change their addresses. Those in favor argued it would be a good time to change, since the telephone prefix changes in December, and new stationery could be printed with both changes at once.

City Council referred the proposal to the Planning Commission.

to him before June 30. The Budget and Admissions committee's recommendations, following hearings for all agencies seeking 1956 financial support from the Chest, will be used to determine the quota for the coming fall Fund Campaign.

Mrs. Margaret Ascher and McGinnis are recent appointments to this committee which also includes Mrs. P. R. Woodworth, Samuel Kirk, Walter Goodwin, Mon, Francis Barbour and Mrs. Percy C. Kortkamp.

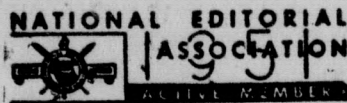

Third quarter payments for 1955 to member agencies of the Chest were authorized by the board. The groups now receiving Community Chest support locally are Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Visiting Nurse Association, Family Service of Sierra Madre, Community Nursery School, Santa Anita District YMCA and the Civic Club's Toy Loan.

The next meeting of the board is set for 8 p.m. Tuesday, August 16, probably at the City Parkhouse.

What Do You Think?

Editor's Note: The opinions expressed in Mr. Shippey's column are not necessarily those of the editors and publishers of the NEWS. If you disagree with Mr. Shippey, who asks, "What Do You Think?", please address your letters to this paper or to Mr. Shippey. It is the intention of The NEWS to stimulate provocative thought and what YOU think is an important part of our program in presenting both sides to public questions of the day. Naturally, we cannot use letters which are abusive or unsigned. We not only invite, but encourage you to use our "Letters to the Editor" column.

If we hope ever to get far in a disarmament conference, we must begin by disarming suspicion.

Ever since this column started, I have tried, now and then, to call attention to the fact that modern science has outmoded war, and the hope of the world lies in making the United Nations work so well that wars will dwindle to mere riots, unlawful and soon suppressed. When man was only a savage, any chief whose tribe grew restless and wanted a larger share of whatever food or hunting space was available could point to some weaker tribe and say:

"Go make war. Victory will make us all right, with plunder, wives and slaves for all."

Of course, when victory was won, the chief got first pick of plunder, wives and slaves, but so many got killed in the fighting that there was still a lot for the survivors to divvy. The warriors made their own weapons and life was cheap, so no capital was required. To make things safer for themselves, the chief invented the idea that the finest thing a man could do was give his life to save his chief. It took many arrows, or even many shots, after guns were invented, to kill a man, on the average.

More men were killed on our highways our latest holiday weekend than in the Battle of Bunker Hill, and perhaps ten times as many, injured. Thus wars were economically possible, the loss of life was not too great, the property losses were comparatively small, and everybody except the bereaved could be fairly happy.

But today a single war plane costs millions, a few atomic bombs costs billions. A single bomb may kill several hundred thousand men, women and children and destroy billions in property. The chiefs, as Hitler and Mussolini learned, may suffer as much as anyone. We all know that another world war would cost rivers of blood and oceans of money. Even if we don't have war, the costs of keeping prepared are eating us all up in taxes.

I'm glad to see that President Eisenhower, last week, made statements about his attitude toward the Geneva Conference which sounded almost as if he had been reading this column and agreed with it. He said, in effect, that he would go there prepared to give due consideration to any reasonable offer.

That is the way to approach a conference.

We Americans admit we are the best salesmen in the world, but the basis of salesmanship is courtesy. How many motor cars or peanuts or anything could we sell if we began by telling the prospective customer: "We know you're a liar and a thief, but here's our offer. Take it or leave it."

We feel that if we have a proposition so provably good that we can prove its benefits to anyone who will listen, all we have to do is be so courteous that he has no excuse to quit listening. Then we try to tie him up in a contract so fair we are willing to abide by it ourselves yet so binding that we can discount it at the bank, if necessary.

The only way we can avoid future wars is by mutual consent, mutual agreement on what is best for all of us. We need only live up to the principles of the United Nations to do that, and we cannot do that by being insulting or dictatorial. Too many of our political figures try to make political capital for themselves by denouncing people they think they can denounce with impunity, especially foreigners who have no votes in their districts.

That may do them some good, but certainly it does nothing to relieve the tensions of the world. We don't have to accept any proposition that is bad for us, but we don't have to reject it with insults, either. We must come to mutual agreements, or we may all come to destruction.

Babson Describes Greater Revolution Here Than Russia

I wonder if you realize that a far greater social and economic revolution is taking place right under your nose than has taken place in Russia. This is a revolution that should put Russia to shame.

LOOK AT YOURSELF
Take a look at what has happened to you. As little as 10 years ago did you expect to own a home such as you probably have today? Did you ever expect to have the kind of car that is yours, to go to the places and do the things you've been doing lately? To own the household appliances that are yours? To be able to send your children to college?

A young Babson Institute senior graduate has had a number of job interviews and

Congressman Edgar W. Hiestand REPORTS THE WASHINGTON NEWS

Congressman Edgar W. Hiestand (21st District, California) has expressed great satisfaction that the Federal Flood Control Appropriations for fiscal 1956, which passed the House, included $14,000,000, practically everything requested by Col. H. E. Hedger of Los Angeles County Flood Control District and the Army Corps of Engineers.

The Hanson Dam and the Lopez Dam in our District, just above the San Fernando Valley, are now in operation and a federal share of that cost has been voted. Some, just outside our District, include San Antonio Reservoir, Santa Fe Dam and Sepulveda Dam, as well as Whittier Narrows Reservoir.

"Most important to our district, however," said Congressman Hiestand, "are appropriations for $750,000 for the Sawpit Wash, east of Monrovia, from the debris basin to Duarte Road, $1,800,000 for Arcadia Wash, from Rio Hondo up to Huntington Drive, to take the run-off from the debris dam we constructed last year, and the Eaton Wash, from Rio Hondo up to Encinita Ave., $1,425,000 to take the potential overflow from Eaton Wash. Of course, the lower Rio Hondo from Washington Blvd. to Whittier Narrows Dam, $2,453,000, is very vitally necessary to complete the potential run-offs from the San Gabriel mountains, which are in federal territory, being the Angeles National Forest.

"The necessary hook-up from Owensmouth Ave. in the San Fernando Valley to the Sepulveda Reservoir, $277,800, and the Los Angeles River run-off from Sepulveda Reservoir to the ocean at $991,000, also very vitally necessary parts of the system, were included.

"The Lima St. Branch of the Arcadia Wash in Sierra Madre, appropriating $441,700, is directly in our District.

"Again may I remark," said said Congressman Hiestand, "these are federal responsibilities because the disaster threats come from federal lands. Los Angeles County, however, carries its share of the participation in its flood control funds, a greater percentage of participation than nearly any community in the United States. In other words, our local communities are doing their share. "I am optimistic that the Senate will approve this appropriation without change, since it is part and parcel of the great long-range program into which Los Angeles County has shared with the Federal Government by appropriating over $100,000,000 over the years.

"The five big debris dams for which we were able to get funds, and which were erected last year, above Sierra Madre and Monrovia in the Bailey, Auburn, Carter and Sawpit Canyons, as well as those in Arcadia and Monrovia Canyons, are now protecting those foothill cities, with the help of the debris dams already erected by the Forest Service in Floral and other canyons.

"It now looks as if victory in our 18 months' campaign to protect the foothill cities will have been achieved. The increased appropriations for the Forest Service, vitally important, are most helpful, but these flood control appropriations, put into real construction by the end of the summer, will have largely averted the disaster threat."

Representative Hiestand stated emphatically much credit is due the people of these communities for their loyal co-operation in doing their share in these great projects.

Letter to the Editor

Editor, Sierra Madre News:

Our City Fathers apparently feel that we all would benefit from widespread elimination of R Two zoning.

Property in R Two zoning is, or can be, "home" property with income. R Three permits courts and apartment houses.

The Planning Commissions of Monrovia, Arcadia, Pasadena and Los Angeles have no intent to obliterate R Two. In each city R Two is considered an essential part of their residential zoning.

Sierra Madre has, also, the question of water supply. We believe that, if Colorado River water is under consideration, the entire enormous cost of the original connection, and the "forever after" cost of service, should be made utterly clear to us all through exhaustive public discussions with audience participation, and full reports thereof in our newspaper.

Sierra Madre is blessed with our own water supply, which has small likelihood of being destroyed in an evil holocaust.

Appreciation of your "Forum Column."

Why Not Enjoy Life ...?

The professional loafer and the fellow who overworks present two extremes. The loafer does nothing for himself or anybody else. The man who knocks himself out hurts both himself and his family. Somewhere between the two lies a happy medium of activity.

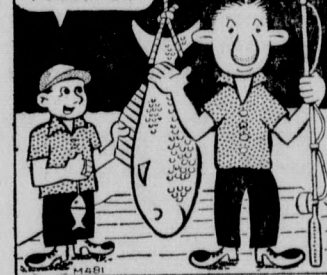

The point is that each individual should try to get the most out of life. The lazy man doesn't, since constructive activity is an integral part of happiness and satisfaction. On the other hand, the fellow who never lets up for a little pleasure hardly has a pleasant existence.

Some people endure the misery of constant want because they won't endure a little self-discipline and hard work. Others accumulate large fortunes through years of strenuous effort and then fail to enjoy their abundance because they haven't learned to relax. A proper balance lies in being reasonably energetic and making wise use of one's time and money. Certainly one should save every dollar he can, build up his bank account, and make himself as financially independent as possible. But money is not an end in itself; rather it is a means toward better living, wider travel, and diversified interests.

Life has a lot to offer if you know how to accept it.

YMCA Summer Youth Program Now Offers Sports and Craft

Tennis, golf and a craft program are now underway as part of the Santa Anita District YMCA summer youth program, Y officials have announced.

First sessions for the tennis and golf programs were held Thursday evening at the Y office, 941 1/2 W. Foothill Blvd. in Monrovia. The craft program was begun Friday afternoon.

Miss Mary Helen Wilband, a member of this year's graduating class at Arcadia High School and recipient of the outstanding girl graduate award of the Girls Athletic Association at Arcadia High School, as well as having the honor of being the first girl to have her name inscribed on the perpetual trophy to be awarded by the Athletic Association, has been selected to teach the tennis class. Miss Wilband expects to major in physical education while in college and will prove a fine addition to the local YMCA staff.

Golf instruction will be conducted by Bob Parker, winner in last week's District YMCA Golf Tournament held at Santa Anita Golf Course, and Ray Keider, prominent Monrovia building contractor. Both are members of the Monrovia Y's Men's Club who give many hours of service to the District YMCA.

Craft instruction will be under the direction of Mrs. Shirley Forden from 1 to 3 p.m. Fridays in the Y office and Mrs. Forden requests youngsters to bring beach stones about 1 inch in diameter.

Golf and tennis lessons will be conducted during July and August with craft ending Sept. 2.

Complete information on the YMCA summer program which serves the communities of Sierra Madre, Monrovia, Arcadia and Duarte are available by calling ELIott 8-5135.

Several openings remain in the 9 a.m. swimming instruction classes in August with registration available at the Y office.

'Showcase' Makes Dates At Playhouse

The Playhouse "Showcase" will be presented again July 28, 29, and 30 to give Hollywood casting directors, agents, and talent scouts the chance to see some interesting new faces.

Thirty-nine students, many with impressive stage, screen, and TV backgrounds, have come from throughout the United States to enroll in the course which began June 20 and will extend for six weeks.

Among them is Leonard Smith, known to millions of TV fans as "Stretch Snodgrass," the unteachable athlete in "Our Miss Brooks." Besides the high rated Eve Arden comedy, in which he is a regular, he has been seen in more television shows than he can name including "Suspense," "The Line-Up," and "Cisco Kid."

He says he doesn't wish to be typed as "just a dumb athlete," so he has enrolled in the summer "Showcase" course to let his agent and others in Hollywood see him play entirely different roles.

Last year a total of 3,875,000 out-of-state tourists spent $529,737,000 in Southern California.

Atlanta Peach Prices Not Too Peachy

Professor and Mrs. Paul E. Bryan, 500 N. Grove, have reason to be more than slightly amused by a newspaper article that appeared recently in the Atlanta Constitution in their home town of Atlanta, Ga.

According to the article, California peaches in Atlanta were selling at almost 25 cents—not per pound, but per peach. They were reported to be the first peaches put on the Georgia market this year.

Prices might be lower eventually, the merchants believe, but they say the difference won't amount to much because a late spring freeze brought drastic cuts to peach growers there.

Professor Bryan, a retired law professor from Emory University in Atlanta, where he taught for 37 years, and his wife moved to Sierra Madre last October after their daughter, Mrs. Robert R. Stone, 3336 Trevan Road in Pasadena, described it as a "beautiful little village."

They may return to Atlanta in August, from where they more easily will be able to visit their son, Lt. Paul E. Bryan, Jr., who is a Navy pilot instructor stationed at Norfolk, Va. If they do, it's quite possible that one of their pieces of luggage may contain a freshly picked bushel of you-know-what from that "beautiful little village" of you-know-where.

Girl Scouts Notes

On June 16 at the Girl Scout Court of Awards the Mariners initiated 15 new members into their crew with a formal ceremony. Since then they have had a busy social time.

On June 24, 15 of the girls attended the San Gabriel Valley Sea Scouts Bridge and Ball at the Naval Reserve Armory just west of Sierra Madre Blvd. The girls enjoyed seeing the boys receive their awards at the Bridge of Honor and had a wonderful time dancing with them at the ball which followed.

Those who were on hand were Muriel Peterson, Malinda Howell, Pat Chamott, Kathy Sauter, Rita Bonney, Pat Nixon, Karen Morris, Toddy Dreager, Sue Maloney, Kay Long, Diane Toms, Kay Keith, Diana Tweedel, Trudy Mandell, Mary Ellen Blake, and Judy Haymaker.

On June 25 the new Mariners planned a beach party at Huntington State Park Beach for the old members of the group. On hand to roast wieners and get a tan in the liquid sunshine were: Muriel Peterson, Patty Hawkins, Kathy Sauter, Doris Merriek, Dee Dee Dammeyer, Linda Green, Rita Bonney, Malinda Howell, Pat Nixon, Kay Keith, Diane Tweedel, Louise Annas, Lelia Robertson, Kay Long, Trudy Mandell, Mary Ellen Blake, Carol Dreager, and Diane Toms.

Transportation was furnished by Skipper Mrs. Marjorie Peterson.

son, Mrs. Barbara Keith, and Mrs. Phyllis Nixon.

Each group of Mariner Girl Scouts is divided into two crews, the Port Watch and the Starboard Watch. During the year they receive points for attendance, correct uniform, and conduct at meeting. At the end of the year the crew with the fewer points gives a party for the winners.

Such a party recently was given in Sierra Madre by the Starboard crew of the local Mariners. Dee Dee Dammeyer, crew leader, and Lee Meyer, Linda Green Rita Bonney, Malinda Howell, and Lynn Vokes arranged a swimming and dinner party at the home of the Mariner Skipper, Mrs. Marjorie Peterson. Muriel Peterson, crew leader of the winning Port Watchers, Pat Chamott, Patty Hawkins, Mercedes MacGowan, Kathy Sauter, and Doris Merriek enjoyed being their guests.

The highlight of the party was the presentation of a gift to Patty Hawkins who is a graduating Mariner. Lee Meyer made the farewell speech and the presentation.

GARDEN NOTES

CEANOTHUS-CALIFORNIA NATIVE LILAC

Bring the wild beauty of the California foothills and mountains into your yard and patio by planting Ceanothus or Wild Lilac which offers 50 species, varieties and hybrids, 44 species of which are natives of California.

The Ceanothus in many of its species has shown itself to be very adaptable for home gardens. Some species do better in certain California locales than others, of course. Discovering what species will adapt best to your area will reward you well—for this native grows in forms that make fine ground covers as well as excellent foreground and background shrubs.

Ceanothus Gloriosus or Point Reyes Lilac grows native in the coastal strip above San Francisco from Point Reyes to Point Arena. A very low growing variety it spreads to five feet in a dense mat and reaches a height of 4 to 24 inches. The leaves have slightly spiny-toothed margins and are leathery and dark green. Lavender-blue flowers that are very fragrant bloom in rounded clusters. One of the most useful ground covers of this group, it can be kept flat by pinching back upright growth. Plant it in a well-drained peaty soil and don't be afraid to water—for it's thirstier than the other species.

Another low-growing variety of the Wild Lilac is the Carmel Creeper or Ceanothus griseus horizontalis which grows as a native of the Monterey Peninsula and central coastal area. It reaches various heights from 18 to 30 inches, spreading from 5 to 15 feet apart. This variety tends to mound if planted too closely; space plants eight feet apart when setting them out.

Blue Blossom, Ceanothus thyridiflorus, grows in the coastal range from Santa Barbara north into Oregon. Its color varies in each area from deep to pale blue and the blooming period varies too—from March to June. Coastal conditions suit this low-growing Wild Lilac best. Its dwarf forms—Mary Lake and Royal Blue—bloom in intense blue flowers, are fast-growing and widespread shrubs reach out 6 to 10 feet and up to two feet.

Medium height Wild Lilac varieties include the Santa Barbara Ceanothus and the hybrid Mountain Haze of the San Diego Ceanothus group. Santa Barbara Wild Lilac comes from the northwestern part of Santa Barbara County and southern San Luis Obispo County. This variety can be distinguished by its dense branches and dark blue flowers appear on it in February through April and it reaches a height and width of 3 to 5 feet. Because it is fast-growing, treat each plant of the Santa Barbara Ceanothus as a perennial with a short garden career, using it for temporary effects, says the California Association of Nurserymen. But you can continue to grow this variety in your garden after one plant has finished by planting seeds or cuttings—sort of a circle process.

Dwarf companion to the Sierra Blue San Diego Ceanothus is Mountain Haze which grows in the 2-to-4-foot range. Investigate the planting possibilities of the many varied Wild Lilac at your nurseryman's and enjoy one of the loveliest of the California natives.

FIRE FLAMES

By JAMES HEASLEY

Don Lusk, one of the newer members of the fire department and a good one, too, has become the proud father of a baby boy recently. When a neighbor asked him if the new arrival had brightened his home, quiet Don was not without an answer when he said: "He sure has. Because of him, we now have the lights on all night long."

One of our few unmarried members says he called on a girl the other night, but before he was let in the house her mother asked about his intentions.

"That must have been embarrassing," the Chief sympathized. "Yes," the bachelor agreed, "but worst of it was when the girl called from upstairs and said, 'That isn't the right man, Mother!'"

Captain Charlie Brown is well supported in his fire work by his young son, who insists that he see the fire trucks to enjoy the thrill of getting behind the wheel. Although Charlie has orders from his better half to do yard work, the young son affords an excuse for Charlie to get away from the task. So, on each day off, watch for father and son at the station. It's true.

In order that Civil Defense be brought close to requirements, the fire department is urging recruits for fire service. Much can be done with more help. It does not necessarily mean that these students of fire fighting be obligated to attend the regular fire drills and meetings. Special training in the rudiments of handling equipment and fighting fire will be given special attention.

Nearing the dry period when fire danger prevails, we must be cautious. Back yards that still have an accumulation of weeds, etc. must be cleared now. Who can forget the mountain fire? It started from carelessness. To permit a pile of loose trimmings, wood or other substance to remain in the yard is carelessness. This applies to indoors as well.

Scanning the Sports Scene

With BOB BROGGER

Manager Charlie Dessen of the Washington Senators has probably found the answer to the question of why the attendance has been sinking at the Major League games as of late. Dessen says that there is too much politeness in the game now, and that the "fire" that once ruled has almost completely disappeared. "My guys, for instance," he said, "while at the plate pick up the mask, wipe it on their clean uniforms and hand it back on a tray to the other team's catcher. I'm expecting any day that a guy will go sliding into base and a fellow from the other team will borrow the ump's whiskbroom to brush him off."

Going into it further, Dessen said that when a man picks up a mask, he's saving the opposing catcher so much effort. And maybe that's just the step he'll need to beat out a hit which will cause the home team trouble or score the winning run.

Now as we said before, this could be why the attendance has been going down. The fans love to see excitement during a ball game, something different once in a while. Take for instance Chet Johnson, pitcher for the Sacramento Solons. He's probably one of the funniest ball players ever to appear on the Coast baseball scenes since Billy Shuster who played shortstop and chewed bubble gum for the Los Angeles Angels in the 1940's.

The fans always pile into the stadium the night Johnson is scheduled to pitch to watch the colorful guy go through his crazy antics like standing on the mound and looking through a telescope to see if he can find the batter.

If there were just 25 more players with the color of Chet Johnson, or if we could find a couple more guys like Dizzy Dean, we would have no trouble in getting the fans to come out to watch a ball game.

In closing, we'd like to quote this classic "quip" by Dessen: "I'd like to see less politeness and more aggressiveness. Let's stop picking up the other guy's mask. Why, I remember when players of opposite teams used to get mad at each other. This was in the day when the gloves were left on the field. So maybe I had a beef with one of the other team's infielders. I'd take his glove and throw it as far as I could. Let

Sierra Madreans On Canadian Tour

J. T. Edwards and his daughter, Mrs. Virginia Bridge, 484 Mariposa, are embarking for an extended tour of the Canadian National Parks.

Enroute they will visit the Grand Tetons and Jackson Lake, Yellowstone National Park, and Glacier National Park, as they travel the famous "Road to the Sun."

Their stops in Canada will include Waterton National Park, Jasper Park, Banff and Lake Louise, Emerald Lake, and Columbia ice fields.

They will return south by way of Radium City, Kootney Lakes, Oakagan Falls, Vancouver, Victoria, Olympia, Crater Lake, Eureka and through the Redwoods to San Francisco.

The travelers expect to return to Sierra Madre the middle of next month.

John P. Justice At Fort Lewis

Pvt. John P. Justice, 19, son of Mrs. H. Ramacciotti, 542 W. Grandview, recently arrived at Ft. Lewis, Wash., and is now a member of the 2nd Infantry Division.

Pvt. Justice, an ammunition bearer with Heavy Mortar Company of the division's 9th Regiment, entered the army in January, 1955, and completed his basic training at Ft. Ord, Calif. He attended John Muir High School.

His father, Col. John K. Justice, is at Eglin Air Force Base, Fla.

Mrs. Eva L. Graves Visits High Sierras

Mrs. Eva L. Graves, 524 Oakdale Dr., enjoyed a two-week stay at the Audubon Camp of California in the High Sierras. The camp is located about one mile off U. S. Highway 40 at the summit of historic Donner Pass.

The monkey tire himself out retrieving the glove. I'd kick a mask away. I wouldn't wipe it clean on my uniform.

"Let's cut out all this fraternizing. Save it for the winter months. Let's go back to baseball and leave the etiquette to Emily Post."

He was talking for professional, adult players, of course—and there could be many who would not agree with him. When it comes to youngsters learning to play the game, every rule of clean sportsmanship should be encouraged, as I'm sure Dessen would be the first to say.

Leave the stagey stuff to the moonie players, the men who play ball to make a living.

Two Sierra Madreans Share Success of 'Pancho Lopez'

Two Sierra Madreans who show every sign of hitting the jackpot in music publishing and recording are Paul Landwehr, 260 W. Carter Ave., and Walter Emery Johnston, 380 Foothill Ave.

The tune they currently are issuing, their 20th recording since origination of their company in April, 1954, is "Pancho Lopez," a Mexican version of "Davy Crockett" that has caught the attention of practically every bigtime disk jockey show in radio and television. Peter Potter's "Juke Box Jury," among others, has given it a featured spot, and it will be heard Saturday over KABC, channel 11, on the "Al Jarvis Show" beginning at 8:30 p.m., according to Landwehr.

The new company, known as the Real (pronounced "Ree-al") Record Company in Pasadena, began with Lalo Guerrero, Jimmy Jones, and Landwehr.

Guerrero, a Mexican guitar and singing star, became acquainted with Jones when they both worked for another recording company 10 years ago. When Landwehr, a UCLA graduate in economics, told them he was looking for a business to enter they combined musical talent, technical experience, and administrative know-how to form a three-man team devoted to producing Spanish and Mexican music, all of it—except their current "Pancho Lopez"—sung in Spanish.

According to Landwehr, none of them had any ready cash, but by "borrowing" and "mortgaging" they kept going until Johnston, the second Sierra Madrean now on their team, was admitted as a "limited partner" when he invested in the company to "keep credit good and to help produce another record."

When the recording of "Pancho Lopez" first was delivered to Al Sherman, Real's Los Angeles distributor, it was in Spanish, as were all the previous records. Sherman, however, was so impressed by the song that he suggested it be made in English.

A "dub" of the English version was in Sherman's hands a few days later—and has been going places ever since it was played by Jim Ameche June 17.

One of the most recent singing stars to ask for the song has been Tennessee Ernie, according to Landwehr, who says that "Tennessee" plans to sing it on his show Monday at noon.

FORD AGENCY NOW OPEN UNTIL 9 P.M. FRIDAYS

Paul Stubbs, sales promotion manager at Carl Hansen's Ford agency, 120 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., has announced that the agency now is staying open for business every Friday evening until 9 o'clock as do other Sierra Madre merchants.

Lots of merchandise is being marked down, but you can't buy success at a bargain counter.

Franco's Son-in-Law Sends Inscribed Book

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin A. Franco, 409 N. Mountain Trail, recently received an inscribed copy of the book, "History and Liberty," written by their son-in-law, Prof. A. Robert Caponigri, who teaches philosophy at Notre Dame, South Bend, Indiana.

In 1949 Professor Caponigri was appointed research professor of philosophy under the Fulbright Act and spent a year of study in Italy and other countries of Europe. In 1952 he was the recipient of a grant for philosophical research from the Rockefeller Foundation of New York.

Since that time he has been engaged in the preparation of the present volume. He also is the author of "Time and Idea: The Theory of History in Giam-battista Vico."

Annual Event Celebrated by Rifle Club

Sixteen members of the Sierra Madre Rifle Club met Friday evening at the Youth Hut, 601 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., for their annual pot-luck dinner.

During the evening it was announced that the National Rifle Association has instituted a new program in which club members may participate, to obtain medals and ribbons for marksmanship. In three categories, .22 and .30 rifle, and pistol (any caliber), awards are given, similar to the course which has been in effect for several years, for Junior NRA members.

Club members have previously participated in the qualifications as set by the Director of Civilian Marksmanship, but with discontinuance of the program for those over 45 years of age, some local members have been disappointed. The new NRA program has no age limit. The DCM program will still be available for those who can qualify.

Further Rifle Club business included announcement of a ladies' night at the club once a month.

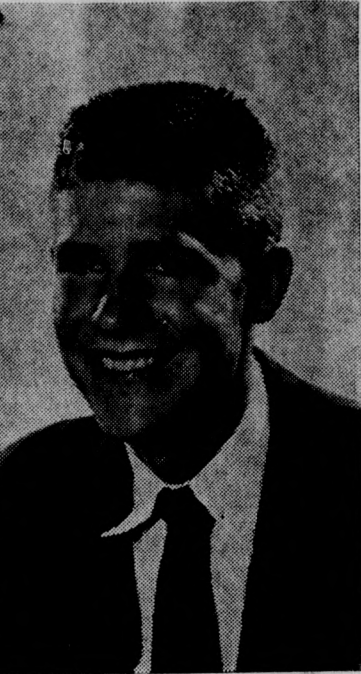

Membership in the club is open to any adult male. First and third Friday evenings are given to pistol practice; the second and fourth to rifle, and whenever a fifth Friday occurs members qualify with small bore.

Meetings are held every Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the basement of the Sierra Madre City Hall.

Dan Peterson Makes Two TV Appearances

Dan Peterson, named "Mr. Teen-Ager of 1955" by judges on a television program, has appeared on two TV shows recently.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson, 71 Suffolk, he first appeared Sunday on the TV channel 4 program, "Teen-Age Trials," which gave him the award after judges took five days to choose the winner from a highly competitive field. He also received a new suit, a government bond for $25, a portable radio, and a desk set. His second TV appearance was during Dick Whittinghill's program, also on channel 4, Monday. Later in the day he was described by Jack Latham in a newscast.

The award, which also was accompanied by a wood and metal plaque with his name inscribed, was based on his contributions to the home, the community, and Americanism. "Teen-Age Trials" was first

BABSON'S REPORT

Continued from Page 2 families with incomes over $4000. Back in 1944 the average family earned $4,027. Today, the average for the American family, including both farmers and those living in the cities, is $5,330. And the average city family today earns over $6000 annually! But most startling of all is the fact that a whopping 44% of all non-farm families earn between $5000 and $10,000 a year.

At the other end of the scale, only 30% of all families, including the traditionally low farm-income group, earn less than $3000. Only 15% of the city families are today found in this group. But keep in mind that these figures apply to families living under the same roof, not necessarily to individuals.

The real eye opener is found in the great economic leveling process that has been at work these past dozen years. Fewer and fewer families are making over $10,000. Only 9.8% of our city families make over $10,000. In short, we have broadened our market base with a greatly made aware of Peterson's accomplishments when Mrs. Prosper J. Grevillot, Sr., 223½ Santa Anita Court, sent the producers a letter in which she mentioned, among other things, that he had won the Ford Industrial Arts award in 1952 because of his talents in architecture and that he now was seeing five houses of his own design in construction.

Many men fail to recognize their obligations when they meet them.

increased number of potential buyers of goods and services. This expanded market base in itself should help to keep us prosperous. This, then, is a revolution in earning power. It has already increased the middle-class group of wage earners so that we today have nearly achieved a one-class, middle-class society, with little poverty and few extremely wealthy persons.

What keeps us rolling, now in 1955? Consumer confidence! Newspaper advertising has created a climate of confidence in which it has been possible for us to consume our way to prosperity.

Yes, it is a tremendous revolution that we are part of, a revolution that makes our standard of living almost unbelievable to most other parts of the world. Character, education and advertising are the basic forces needed to have prosperity continue.

Swim Teacher Warns Against Buoyant Tubes

Inflated tubes, including the castoff inner tube from the family jalopy that Junior loves so much, have come under suspicion in the opinion of Dr. Paul Gerrish, nationally known swimming instructor who warns that they can be dangerous to non-swimmers.

Dr. Gerrish, who reports that his opinion is shared by many leading authorities on water safety, believes that inflated tubes are a hazard to non-swimmers because they support the user in an incorrect swimming position; encourage children to swim beyond their depth with a false sense of security; are apt to become deflated thus causing an accident; and can cause one's feet to be lifted in the air with one's face held under the water possibly to the point of drowning.

Dr. Gerrish, an experienced swimming coach, is now the director of the Pasadena Swim and Sports Club. Estimating that 75,000,000 persons in the United States cannot swim, he thinks that not only Junior but many adults as well had better hang their inflated tubes on a hickory limb and not go near the water. Either that, or learn to swim.

PERLOFS RETURN FROM HAWAII WITH TANS AND DIPLOMA

For the many customers of Sam Perlof at the Royal Drug who may have wondered about his deep tan it might be said that he certainly didn't get it from a sun lamp. According to his wife, Annette, he acquired his Hawaiian shade of skin during the period in which he also learned the hula.

Staying at the Waikiki Biltmore in Honolulu recently, the Perlofs did a lot more than learn the native dance. After they flew to the Islands June 23 with nine other couples from the California Pharmaceutical Association they stayed several days longer than the others because they wanted to see more than just the tourist side of Honolulu.

Besides the island of Oahu they visited the islands of Kauai and Hawaii, on the latter of which they made a brief residence at Kona. Among the many Californians they recognized during their visit was Mrs. Genevieve Paschall, 138 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., and Mr. and Mrs. Horace F. Gillette, 100 N. Auburn Ave.

They chose the water route for their return trip, going aboard the "Lurline" July 6 and arriving at Wilmington July 11. Among the souvenirs they brought home is a diploma awarded for hula talents, and a hula skirt—neither one of which belongs to Sam.

BETHANY GROUPS SET ANNUAL PICNIC

The Mariners and Voyagers of Bethany Church held their annual family picnic Saturday, July 9, at Farnsworth Park. The highlight of the afternoon's activities was a highly contested ball game, which, according to the Mariners, was much closer than the 12-to-3 score indicated.

A picnic supper of fried chicken, potato salad, baked beans, sliced tomatoes and ice cream was served to a record crowd of 185 persons.

Following the supper, a hilarious skit was presented by the ship's doctors and nurses, Stan and Orpha Moyer and Brice and Carolyn Carlson, on the proper techniques of first aid.

Members of the committee whose labor made the picnic a success were Carolyn and Brice Carlson, Connie and Ron Carver, Eleanor and Gerald Johnson, Edith and Hugo Annas, Ethel and Glenn Westover and Margaret and Raeburn Woodson.

P-F Success Produces Another Dance Friday

A young people's group at the Congregational Church known as the Pilgrim Fellowship has been staging a series of dances that have proven so successful that the group has decided to arrange one every month for all teen-agers in Sierra Madre.

The next one, entitled "July Jump," will be tomorrow night in Pritchard Hall at the church, from 8 to 11:30 o'clock. Miss Donna Mihalovic, publicity chairman for the P-F's, has announced that the music will be by recordings.

At the last dance more than 75 teen-agers attended. Contributions are 25 cents per couple; same price for stag.

Dave Harfman Wins Bethany Model Contest

Dave Harfman won first place in the model airplane and glider contest held at the Santa Anita parking lot Saturday morning. The competition highlighted the boys' craft work which has been accomplished during the vacation Bible School at Bethany Church.

Harfman, with a total of 1650 points out of a possible 2000, captured the top award which was a thimble-sized .049 model gas engine with a free-flight airplane kit. Second prize, a jet model engine and airplane kit, went to Dennis Harfman, Dave's brother, and the third prize, a rubber-powered airplane kit, was taken by Gary Cass.

Bob Leonard, sponsor of the group, said that Bill Burke, Dick Ower, and several others had hard luck when test flying their models and thus were unable to enter a separate plane or glider in each of the three divisions open for competition.

The group plans to continue its activities as a club organization building tow-line gliders and gas-powered model airplanes. The possibility of affiliating with a national model building organization is being considered, possibly for adults as well as young people.

Those interested should contact Dave Harfman, Custer 5-6140, or Bob Leonard, Custer 5-9410.

The dreamer starves today while feeding on tomorrow's hopes.

Congregational to Feature Choir in Sunday Services

The choir at the Congregational Church, under the direction of Stewart Matter, will sing Robert's "Seek Ye the Lord" at the 11 a.m. service Sunday, with Don Albert in the tenor solo.

The soloist at the 9:30 service will be Mrs. Isabelle Hay-Chapman. At both services the sermon by Rev. George Lindsay will be entitled: "Love—the Best Gift."

Last Sunday, Mr. Lindsay's theme was "Liberty or License?" Pointing out that freedom is not just the ability to do what we wish when we wish it, he said that such freedom leads only to tyranny both in the political realm and in our personal lives.

He illustrated how none of us is free in the sense of existing in a vacuum. Every choice we make is conditioned by our previous experience and our estimate of what the greatest good in life may be.

"For in truth," Mr. Lindsay said, "We are not free at all, in the sense of being our own ultimate Masters. We are 'owned' men. We belong to God, and ought to recognize that it is His purposes which control our very being."

"Those purposes, to love both God and our neighbor, control our lives. But at the same time, they free us from all lesser controls, so that the mark of the Christian is not outward conformity to any code or creed, or law, but inward recognition of the purposes of God. These purposes may not lead to the same outward pattern at all; Christians ought to be prepared to accept quite different patterns of conduct in political, social, and moral realms. The only authority they may exercise is to ask, 'Friend, do you do this in love?'"

Mr. Seth Van Winkle has reported that Pritchard Hall will be open for recreational purposes for teen-agers again tonight from 7 to 10 o'clock. All Sierra Madre young people are invited to participate in the program.

DR. RAEBURN WOODSON SERVES AT BETHANY

Rev. Raeburn Woodson, assistant pastor at Bethany Church, will be speaking at the 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. services in the absence of Dr. Robert Schaper who is currently ministering at the Lake Sammamish Bible Conference in Seattle, Wash.

The Rev. Woodson's subject for the morning service will be "A Living Hope."

People get the blues because they fail to look at their problems in the right light.

'Life' Theme For Science Church Sunday

The thought that God is eternal life and the source of all true life and being, is emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon on "Life" in the Christian Science churches Sunday. The Golden Text is from I John (5:11), "This is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this is in his Son."

The Scriptures record, "A certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany... When Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already... And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, 'Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me... And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. And he that was dead came forth.'" (John 11:1,17, 41,43,44).

A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy reads, "If Jesus awakened Lazarus from the dream, illusion, of death, this proved that the Christ could improve on a false sense. Who dares to doubt this consummate test of power and willingness of divine Mind to hold man forever intact in its perfect state, and to govern man's entire action?" (p. 493).

Little Coast League Schedule

The following is the summer schedule for Sierra Madre's Little Coast League teams. Each of the six teams will play 15 games, making a total of 45 games played, considering that it takes two teams to make a baseball game.

Diamond 1 is at City School, 141 W. Highland Ave. Diamond 2 is on the grounds of Sierra Mesa School, 140 N. Canon Ave. Warm-ups preceding each game begin at 5:30 p.m., with the umpire calling for the first batter in official play at 6 p.m.

The games, in which a few base-running rules are altered for the protection of the young players, usually are no more than five innings—and no inning is begun after 8 p.m.

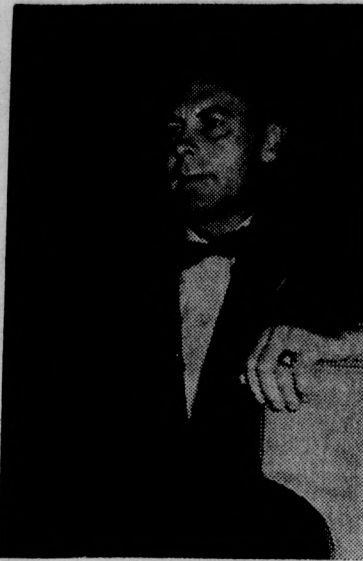

Each team is named after a city in California, and within the six competing ball clubs approximately 90 boys are enrolled in America's number one outdoor recreation that gave rise to the ever-popular song: "Take Me Out to the Ball Game."

VACCINATION FOR FOREIGN TRAVEL

Americans travel abroad more than any other people in the world, and most of them know that a passport should be obtained before leaving the United States. But a number of individuals who are planning their first overseas trip are unaware that if traveling extensively, an International Certificate of Vaccination may also be required. The getting of a Certificate may seem a complicated business to the uninitiated although actually it isn't.

Vaccination is required for several reasons. It protects the health of the individual and helps to prevent the passage of disease from one country to another. It also does much to control the possibility of introducing contagious diseases to this country, some of which have been eradicated after a great many years of hard work.

Only three vaccinations are recorded on the Certificate and these are for smallpox, cholera and yellow fever. Smallpox vaccination is generally sufficient if the traveler confines his wanderings to the European continent and is not required for visits to Canada and a few other places nearby.

As a matter of fact, it is even possible to travel over most of Europe without being asked to produce the Certificate at all, but upon re-entering the United States evidence of immunity to smallpox is demanded whether obtained from vaccination within the past three years or a previous attack of the disease. If this is not available, the individual will undergo experiences not generally included in vacation plans such as detention up to 14 days, or vaccination, or both.

As a general rule, people prefer to have the necessary vaccinations (with the exception of yellow fever) done by a private physician; however, travel vaccinations may be obtained at the local health center which provides service to the area in which the individual resides.

The Los Angeles County Health Department has 13 District Centers that offer health services, including vaccinations, to residents in 41 of the 46 cities in Los Angeles County and also to those persons who live in unincorporated areas. The County Health Department does not extend these services to people residing in Los Angeles City, Beverly Hills, Pasadena, Vernon and Long Beach since all of these places maintain their own health departments. Individuals living in any of these cities should therefore apply to their own particular department for information or service.

The Certificate is provided by the physician at the time of immunization. It must then be brought or mailed to the local health center in the area where the doctor has his practice in order that the form may be stamped with the official seal of the County Health Department. These Certificates are not available to prospective travelers, but physicians may obtain as many as they need from the local health center.

In addition to smallpox vaccine, protection against typhoid and paratyphoid fever and typhus is often considered desirable for those persons who intend to visit countries where sanitation is poor. The physician may be consulted on this, or any other, protection that should be obtained and the advice generally given is that it is best to be on the safe side and take whatever is recommended by the Public Health Service.

If the traveler's route takes him through certain countries, protection against yellow fever will be essential. These "shots" are not given by private physicians but are obtainable in this area only through the United States Public Health Service, 424 Federal Building, Los Angeles, at 1:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. No appointment is needed and the vaccination is good for six years. There is no charge for this service. At least five days should elapse between yellow fever inoculation and smallpox vaccination and the individual will mind them less if he allows himself sufficient time and gets the yellow fever inoculation first.

In addition to the International Certificate of Vaccination, a few Latin-American countries require a personal health certificate. This may take the form of a letter written by a physician, and certified by a health department, which states that the individual is in good mental and physical health and is free from communicable disease, including trachoma.

"Immunization Information for International Travel" is the title of an informative pamphlet on this subject, and may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C., for 20 cents (no stamps accepted).

Neff Named Governor By Toastmasters Club

Leland I. Neff, regional secretary of the National Association of Manufacturers, of 1543 Highland Ave., Arcadia, has been appointed area governor of Area 9 of the Founders District of Toastmasters International. Neff's area includes clubs in Sierra Madre, San Marino, Arcadia, Monrovia and Azusa. The organization is devoted to improvement of the individual in public speaking, and Neff plans to stimulate membership growth in the various clubs, he said, after the appointment was announced by Lew Sutherland of San Gabriel, district governor of the Founders District.

ZONING ORDINANCE

ognized the delicacy of rezoning problems, he said, nevertheless the Supreme Court has thrown out many public protests, proving that the decisions of planners should prevail if they contemplate over-all benefits to the City.

In sharp contrast to Thorpe's opinion, Judge John C. Mead, 480 N. Baldwin, told the Council, "You are an elected body with prescribed duties. One of those duties is to protect the interests of our citizens; therefore I request that you make your own investigations and study of this problem, both from the standpoint of the damage and loss which I may suffer, as well as the benefits that may be accomplished for the community."

Controversy centered last Tuesday chiefly against any rezoning in the block between Sierra Madre Blvd. and Mariposa, west to Michillinda and east to Sunnyside. The majority of residents there opposed the proposal to permit professional buildings on the boulevard, favoring the retention of single dwellings in the entire block, but Raymond D. Andrews wanted commercial zoning on the corner southeast of the Hastings shopping area, and Elsa Gebert, 90 S. Michillinda, requested R-3 (multiple residence) zoning on her street.

Thorpe cited the development trends and the tremendous increase in traffic on Michillinda as proof that single family residences there eventually would deteriorate. But experience showed, he said, that keen competition for rental units in such an area. The general character and beauty of Sierra Madre, he argued, invited refined people even to its small apartments, not the rowdy type.

The hottest moment in the relatively quiet meeting came when mild applause greeted the question of Carl H. Gerke, 602 Mariposa, who asked, "What do we have to do to block this ordinance? We don't want it."

HOME OCCUPATIONS

The new ordinance greatly limits the character and scope of occupations which may be conducted from home in the future, but most of such vocations now existing are permitted to remain. However, any business which now is being conducted from a home basement may be prohibited, unless the public secures an amendment permitting it.

Many existing home occupations now enjoy a more secure position than they have in the past. They have been operating illegally, but if the proposed amendment is approved they will be legalized. With regard to strict limitations on such occupations for the future, Mayor James said he has received as many requests for elimination of home workshops in residential zones as for their continuance.

RECREATION

of materials. Supervision during the lunch hour is provided. Philip Mitchell is the recreation director; Jean McKesson, Cliff Moffett, and Richard Draeger are counselors; and Joyce (Mrs. Donald R.) Gallaher is crafts director.

From 50 to 90 children have participated in each day's activities. Plans for the future include afternoon motion pictures at City School auditorium, 141 W. Highland Ave., and Friday, July 22, will be "Wheel Day" when the children will bring their decorated bicycles, scooters, and doll buggies to participate in contests centered about a safety theme.

Doctors seem to prescribe rest and change only to those who already have the change.

Summer School Courses Set At Anoakia

Courses in remedial reading, mathematics, English, spelling and other academic subjects will be offered to children of elementary and junior high school age for the remainder of the summer at Anoakia School for Girls, 701 W. Foothill Blvd., Arcadia, until Sept. 2.

Ralph H. Pinney, a teacher in Sierra Madre City Schools, again will be in charge of the summer academic program in which either private lessons or small group lessons are available to children who wish to advance their scholastic progress during the summer months.

For children between the ages of 5 and 13 it is possible to confine themselves to tutoring only, or to combine it with the camp program of recreational activities.

An interesting and well prepared program made available by Mr. Pinney's experience and skills promises many great advantages to children in this area who wish to brush up on their schooling during the vacation months.

Hours and schedules may be arranged by telephoning Anoakia any day during the week. The phone number is CUster 5-1438.

Business Promotion

Assisting her in making immediate delivery of the prizes that could be lifted were Emile Smith, vice president of the present corporation, and Syd Westfall, secretary-treasurer.

SETTLERS NOT SETTLED

They've been in "Ford Times," too. At least, the station wagon they ingeniously equipped for travel was pictured. But Nita says the illustration of her is the product of a confused artist who thought they said "Rita."

A Danish Sunday supplement serialized their travels in four issues. The photographs were familiar, but the fictionalized Roy and Judy that accompanied the pictures were not recognizable as the Rosens.

Making friends in every country they visited, the local couple have been ambassadors of good will. But Russ' "American" article ends with the conclusion that it's all over now. With two little Rosenes, he felt a more stable life was demanded.

Even so, Sandra, 4, and Chris, 2½, are now seasoned travelers, with a red convertible as much their home as the Skyland Drive address.

When Chris was 8 months old, and Sandra, 2 years, the family spent a month touring 10,000 miles. Last year, the four covered 5,000 miles in six weeks.

Although Russ considers himself a settled family man, his present job consists of almost constant travel, as radio operator on the S.S. Lompoc, a Union Oil Company tanker cruising along the California coast.

Besides raising a family, writing, photography, traveling and earning a living, the Rosenes are producing film strips. From the South American trip they have assembled two strips now on the market, "Chilean Journey," and "Farming in Chile." Schools are their best customers.

Next on the production line is "A California Oil Tanker." Russ spent two years taking the pictures on the Lompoc.

At present, the red convertible is often on the go, as Nita and the children dash up and down the coast to meet Russ. A combination of play-pen and beds in the car makes traveling easy on the children. It evidently agrees with them, for they're a bright-eyed pair of youngsters, Sandra a dimpled cutie, and Chris a husky, cheerful half-pint.

Will the Rosenes actually settle down by the time the children are in school?

It's probably safe to say it won't be little green men with pointed heads who greet the first rocket expedition to the moon. It's more apt to be the unfettered Rosenes, with a brochure of their travels and a film strip in color, dispensing cordiality. Somehow they'll make it on their own, while the rest of us are day-dreaming.
